

HPD Incident #: 133974912 Name: Unknown
Date: Monday, October 22, 2012 Time: 10:00 AM
Location: Houston, TX
Offense: Aggravated Robbery - Deadly Weapon - Handgun

On Monday October 22, 2012, the suspect flagged down a taxicab in the 2700 block of W. Holcombe, and told the victim to drive to 2900 Woodridge. As the victim exited the Gulf Freeway, he felt a handgun near his head, and the suspect demanded that he give him his wallet and money. The victim complied and as the taxicab slowed to a stop, the suspect jumped out and ran away towards the McDonalds on Woodridge.

The same suspect then walked up to a vehicle in the drive thru at McDonalds and pointed a gun at a female victim. He demanded money, but she told him that she had none. She started screaming for help and honking her horn, so the suspect walked to the car in front of her in the drive thru line.

The female victim in that car was approached on the driver side of the vehicle by the same suspect, and he tapped on the window with the handgun. He yelled at her to open the door, so she unlocked it and he got in the car with her. He told her to drive away "real fast". The suspect ordered the female victim to drive to the area of Jensen and US 59. The victim dropped the suspect off at that location and sped away.

THE SUSPECT IS DESCRIBED AS:

Suspect #:1
